CAMPBELL ESTATE EARNED $102,659 FOR LAST YEAR

Cecil Brown this morning filed in the Circuit Court his accounts and reports as guardian and trustee of several persons and estates.

The most important of these was the seventh annual account of Cecil Brown, H. M. von Holt and A. N. Campbell, trustees of the estate of James Campbell. The report shows the estate to be in a most flourishing condition. The gross receipts during the year 1911 amounted to $154,498.32, while the disbursements were only $51,838.90, leaving a net balance of $102,659.42. This balance has been distributed in accordance with the terms of the will. Each of the beneficiaries received the neat little sum of $25,664 and some odd cents.

Mr. Brown's report as guardian of Anita Meyer shows that he collected during the year $318.25 and spent $239.40, leaving a cash balance of $78.85.

As trustee of the estate of Simon Roth, Mr. Brown charges himself with $13,884 and asks to be allowed the same amount.

Reporting on his trusteeship of the estate of Godfrey Rhodes for the year 1911, Cecil Brown declares that he took in $2864.34 and spent the same amount.

In his twelfth annual account as trustee of the estate of Kaleiopia Kanoa, Mr. Brown reports that he collected $3229 and disbursed the same amount.

WOMAN VERY BADLY BURNED

A Portuguese woman named Maria Ferreira was badly burned about the body this morning and taken to the hospital for treatment.

A message was received at the police station that a woman had dropped dead near School and Luzo streets and asking for the fast wagon.

Deputy Sheriff Rose happened to be at the station when the call came through and asked the officer at the other end why the fast wagon was needed if the woman was dead. The officer then qualified his statement by saying that she was not dead yet, but very badly burned.

Rose went out with the wagon and found the woman in her house, surrounded by a crowd of chattering neighbors. She was badly burned about the breast, arms, hands and face.

She stated that she had been burning some rags in the yard when her dress caught fire and that before she could disrobe she had suffered the injuries mentioned.

CHAIRMAN COOPER

ple rule to the effect that no person can take part in precinct affairs unless he shall not only be enrolled in the register of the secretary of the precinct club, as required under the present rules, but also be a duly qualified registered voter for the district and precinct in question, which fact shall be determined by a certified list taken from the great register and forwarded to the several precinct clubs by direction of the several county committees.

"This simple rule will prevent, or at least go a long way toward preventing many of the ills attendant upon our local precinct politics. It will add materially to the difficulties of 'registering,' 'borrowing' and 'loaning' voters, and last, but not least, it will be an official notice to those who depend on the party to register them that this time they will have to attend to it themselves or keep out of precinct politics. Its adoption would not mean that the party will not be willing to look after those who cannot register on account of physical disability, or any other good reason, but it will mean that those who, being able, are not willing to go to the trouble of registering themselves would have no voice in the precinct meetings; and if a person does not take enough interest in civic affairs to register it is a pretty safe guess that his inability to take part in precinct affairs will result detrimentally to the party."

Lieutenant Colonel Charles B. Cooper, surgeon general of the National Guard of Hawaii, and first Lieutenant of the Medical Reserve Corps, U. S. A., has been nominated to the Field Service School for Medical Officers, to be held for six weeks, beginning April 1, at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

GRAND OLD MAN STILL IN HARNESS

Charles R. Bishop, nine days before his ninetieth birthday, or January 18, was elected head of the board of directors of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., of San Francisco. A report of the forty-ninth annual meeting of the company in the Chronicle of January 17, the day after it was held, says:

"The reports show that the business of the company for the past year has been very satisfactory. The total premiums written are $5,187,674.02, an increase over the previous year of $485,440.03. The company shows present gross assets of $8,648,591.75, a gain of $578,962.32. Its reinsurance reserve has increased $324,576.69 and now amounts to $3,714,707.97. Its surplus is $2,581,480.52, an increase of $195,079.39.

"The company paid twelve per cent. dividend last year, and at yesterday's meeting the directors declared a quarterly dividend of four per cent., or at a rate of sixteen per cent. per annum. In consequence the shares rose many points at a single jump.

"The directors will meet today and elect officers. The present officers will most likely be chosen to guide the work of the company during the current year.

"The following are the directors: Charles R. Bishop, George A. Newhall, J. B. Levison, J. C. Coleman, Charles Page, Bernard Faymonville, Arthur A. Smith, Henry Rosenfeld, F. W. Van Sicken, William J. Dutton and Charles P. Eells."

Mr. Bishop was the agent of this company in Honolulu for many years before his departure.

WAIMEA WHARF

in a bad way, and the harbor commissioners have been asked to do something in the matter.

The Waimea wharf is like many others in the Territory, inasmuch as it does not produce a dollar of revenue for the treasury. The wharf has been extended and repaired many times, and it is a very expensive proposition to handle. Still, something is to be done in the matter and the commissioners will do their best. An inspector will be sent to Kauai, who will consider the proposition of repairing the jetty and also of putting in concrete piles in lieu of wooden ones.

It was suggested by Commissioner Wakefield that the people who use the jetty should be asked if they consider the present location the best, or whether they would suggest that the pier be erected elsewhere.

Mayor Fern and Supervisor Low, arriving at the meeting while the Waimea wharf was being discussed, asked to be heard with reference to the Waikane proposed wharf. Low pointed out that the pineapple companies were going ahead fast, and that a large amount of lumber will be landed soon at Waikane. He asked that, if possible, some of the Honolulu money be diverted to build a wharf at Waikane. The board took the matter under advisement to see what can be done to help out.

CANDIDATES

The opinion of the commissioners was that the fact that an examination for pilots is to be held should be advertised, and that all those who care to try for the position be allowed to do so. The date will be set in the near future, and it is thought that more than the seven men mentioned above will take the examination.

It is thought advisable to have one or two substitute pilots always available so that, in case of another vacancy occurring, a man will be on hand to fill it.

VETERAN SAMUEL M'KEAGUE ANSWERS THE LAST SUMMONS

Samuel McKeague, for many years a resident of Honolulu, died at 4 o'clock this morning. He was born in New York city sixty-four years and five months ago, coming to the Hawaiian Islands in 1876. Here he wedded Miss Emma Lyceet, who survives him. He leaves a sister in Kansas City. A brother, who owned the Heela sugar plantation, died some years ago. For thirty-four years Mr. McKeague was in the employ of the off-changing government of these islands. He was a police captain for ten years and keeper of the kerosene warehouse for twenty-two years. In the provisional and transition periods Mr. McKeague was captain of the Makiki squad of the citizens' guard.

The late Mr. McKeague was a Union veteran, a member and most of the time an officer of Geo. W. Do Long Post, G. A. R., from its start as the first post outside of the United States. A deep indentation in the top of his head was a credential of his valor on the bloody field of Gettysburg. He had enlisted from Pennsylvania. A few years ago he attended the national encampment of the G. A. R. in Boston, having the time of his life and no doubt gaining an extended lease of this world. For many years he suffered from a rheumatic affection contracted in the war, which badly crippled his hands, but he never lost his natural cheerfulness and pluck. A period of treatment at one of the California hot springs some years ago gave him considerable benefit. For some years he drew a pension of $12 a month. On one of the Congressional visits to Hawaii, however, Congressman Barchfeld of Pennsylvania had his attention drawn to the veteran's distorted hands and, with the co-operation of Congressman McLachlan of California, successfully moved to have his pension raised to $30. Mr. McKeague never applied for a pension. By his thrift he acquired a goodly amount of property in Honolulu.

The funeral will take place from the K. of P. Hall at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and be in charge of the Eagles. Interment will be in the Grand Army plot.

NEWCOMERS CLUB ON SUNDAY NEXT

An unusually full and attractive program has been arranged for the meeting of the Newcomers' Club in the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon. The discussions which have been held at the regular meetings have aroused unusual interest and have served in themselves to build up a large membership and sustain interest in the meetings but this Sunday there will be added features. Anderson's orchestra will play in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. from 4 until 4:50 o'clock Sunday afternoon, after which the usual discussion will be held at the meeting in Cooke hall. Professor Collais will start the discussion upon the topic, "Choosing a Life Work."

During the supper hour H. Gooding Field, until recently chief accountant and financial expert of the Panama Canal commission, will talk informally upon his personal reminiscences of the Panama Canal. Mr. Field was in most intimate touch with the men at the head of the great engineering work and also with the progress of the work itself, so his account of it should be interesting.

The club meeting is open to any who are interested and those who have come recently to Hawaii are especially invited.

HAWAIIAN NAMES STICK TOURISTS

Some of the native Hawaiian names proved too much for the compiler of the literature in connection with the Cleveland cruise. The Pail is said to be reached by a road that leads up Nanau Valley. Kawaiahae has become Kawaiahae. Kapiolani Park is referred to as Kapiolani Park.

Fortunately, there are only two paragraphs devoted to Honolulu. What might have happened had there been a few more paragraphs, it is too horrible to imagine. Waikiki and Kamehameha were safely passed by the author.

Needless to say Mark Twain's famous quotation, about no alien land having any deep strong charm for him except Hawaii, has been appropriated.

Honolulu lodge, Order of Moose, last night had the following officers installed for the new term: Past Dictator, C. H. Brown; Dictator, A. J. Wirtz; Vice Dictator, Clem Quinn; Prelate, L. D. Timmons; Secretary, E. A. Jacobsen; Treasurer, Charles A. King; Sergeant at Arms, H. Whitcomb; Inner Guard, Taylor Hobnet; Outer Guard, P. T. Hurley; Trustees, A. T. Anderson, C. Seville, J. J. Sullivan; Physicians, W. C. Bobby, R. W. Benz.
